Progress of Rail Projects in Maharashtra

5163. SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA: Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have reviewed the progress of medium and major projects under implementation in Maharashtra in general and Vidarbha region in particular;

(b) if so, the details of financial and physical achievements in terms of funds allocated, released and actually utilised with unspent balance and physical targets achieved each year for the past five years, projects-wise;

(c) the details of cost escalation, project-wise with reasons therefor; and

(d) the details of new projects approved for execution and funds provided therefor, alongwith fund allocation for ongoing projects in Maharashtra, project-wise for the current year?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI DIGVIJAY SINGH): (a) to (d) Planning for investments on the Railways is done in a national perspective in an integrated manner. Geographical boundaries of a state or region do not form a basis for taking investment decisions on the Railways. Also, a number of Railway projects span across more than one state and region. State/region-wise details of costs, overruns, financial outlays or expenditure is not maintained for Railway projects.

However, the present physical progress of Railway projects in Maharashtra and New Works in Maharashtra, included in 2000-2001 Budget, are given in Statement.
